

Tobacco

Fill In The Blanks

Tobacco is a stimulant _____, meaning it speeds up the messages between the brain and the body.

Tobacco comes in a range of different products including; cigarettes, _____, loose tobacco and even _____ tobacco.

Tobacco is very _____. The addictive chemical in tobacco is _____.

There are around _____ different chemicals in tobacco, and around _____ are carcinogenic, meaning they can cause _____.

Ammonia, arsenic, benzene, carbon monoxide, and _____ are just some of the chemicals found within tobacco.

Tobacco has both short and _____ term effects on the body.

Smoking tobacco, in the short-term, can cause someone to have a headache and go _____. Tobacco can cause someone to smell, have bad _____ and to even feel sick.

Long term tobacco use can lead to some serious health conditions including; heart _____, stroke, _____ damage, diabetes and cancer of the lung, throat and _____.

A person must be _____ or over to be sold tobacco in the U.K.

Mouth	Disease	Drug	70
Chewing	Cigars	Dizzy	Cancer
Tar	Long	Nicotine	Addictive
18	Lung	4000	Breath